A passion for Wildlife conservation and love of travel has allowed me to visit incredible places and witness fascinating wildlife, some of which resides here in the British Isles. Having studied and actively been involved in Conservation projects from a young age, I continued to support this cause whilst studying at Italia Conti. My love of Snow Sports and Rock Climbing has taken me to some of the tallest Mountain Ranges and I feel extremely fortunate to have experienced this. I love an adventure and so far have ticked off 3 of the 'New Seven Wonders of the World' with 2 more booked for 2013. Having Studied and worked in Wildlife Conservation and worked as a Natural World Presenter, It has shown me that Presenting is the line of work I will persue.
